

Co-funded by the European Union

Green Labor and Green Competence Workshops

Learning / Teaching / Training

Instructional Training
22-28 August 2023
Ljubljana, Slovenia

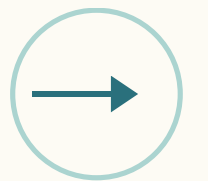

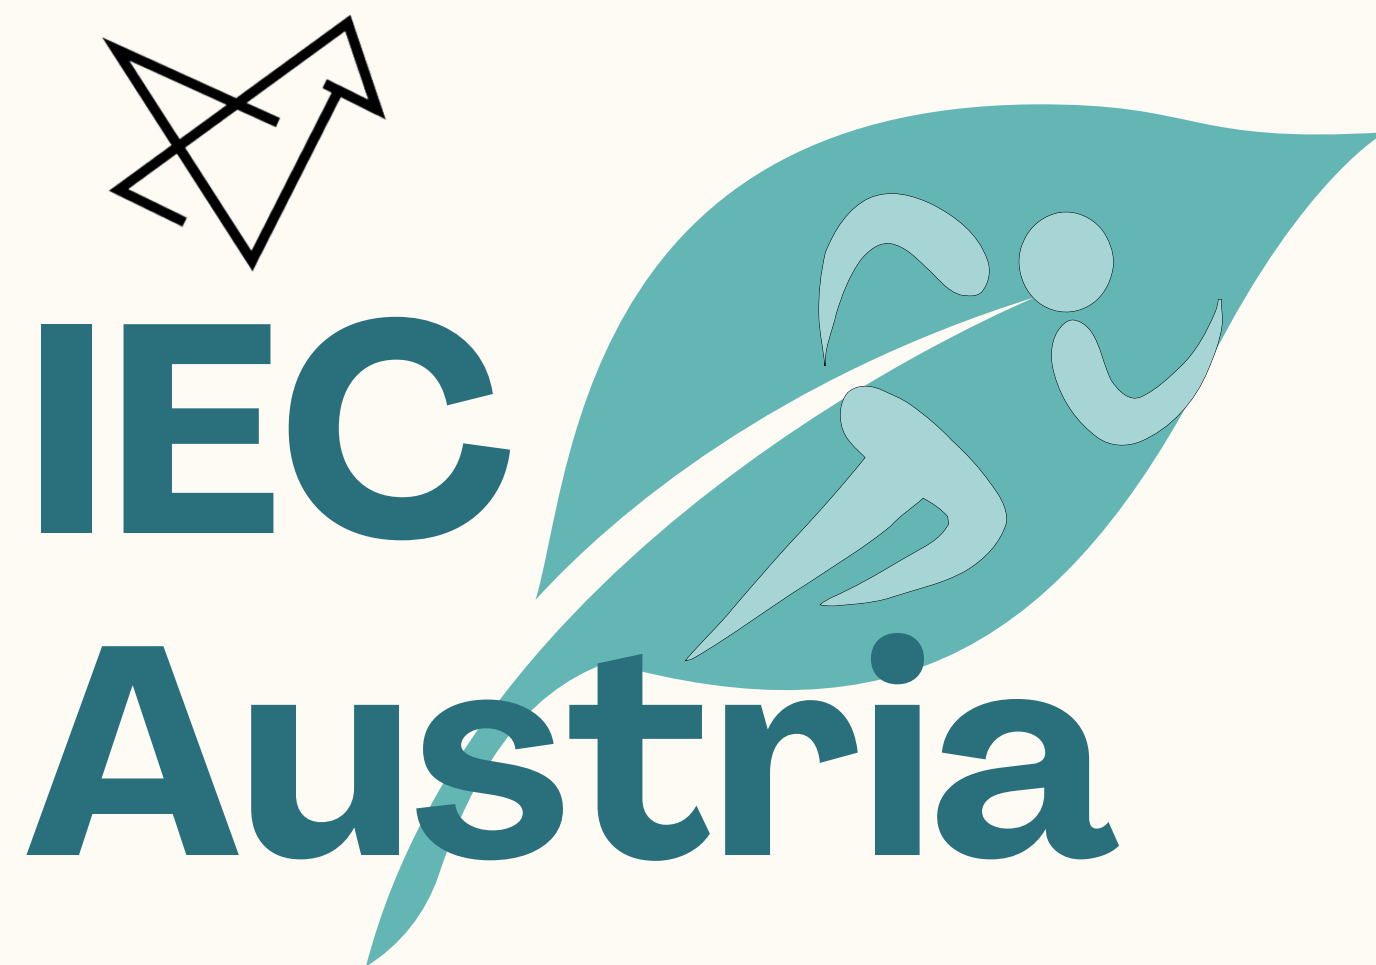

Welcome!

G3SFY WORKSHOP

Developing a deep understanding of the G3SFY and enhancing your skills to facilitate "Green Labor Market - Green Competences" workshops

Overview of IEC Austria

- IEC Austria, a Vienna-based non-profit, advocates for ecological citizenship, responsible behavior, women's empowerment, and equal opportunities.
- Founded in 2018, 16 international experts in sports, education, and green entrepreneurship.
- Working in the field of social cohesion, rural youth empowerment, sustainable living promotion, experiential learning in schools, eco-friendly sports events, and gender equality in sports.
- Organizes eco-conscious activities: hikes and clean-ups to promote social inclusion, physical health, and sustainable cities.
- Over 60 volunteers, offer placement and volunteering opportunities for youth and participate in European Commission-funded projects.

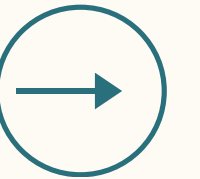

Expert Trainers

Michaela Fintorova

Lubica Fintorová

Workshop Aim and Goals

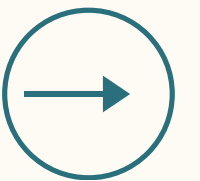

Create a team of skilled educators across partner organizations

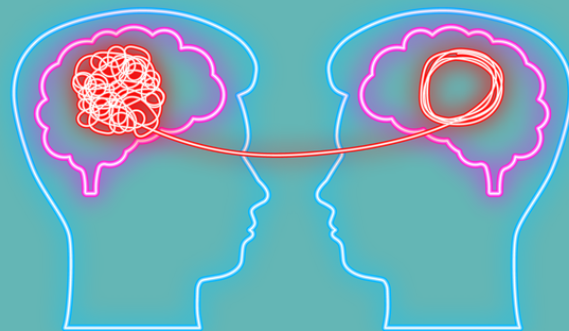

Lead activities promoting the Green Three Seas for the Young initiative

Emphasize environmental sustainability and active participation of young people in preserving our planet

Workshop Outcomes

Deep understanding of the Green Three Seas for the Young Initiative's goals and objectives

Ability to moderate activities related to this initiative

Proficiency in conducting the "Green Labor Market - Green Competences" workshops inspire

Inspiring and educating young people about green competences and opportunities in the green labor market

Overview of Workshop Modules

Covering workshop modules (IO2)

Equipping young individuals with knowledge and skills for a green economy

Addressing the increasing need for green skills in today's job market

Practical Demonstration

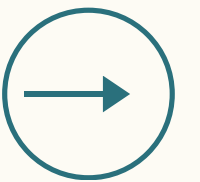

Practical demonstration of utilizing workshop modules

Hands-on approach for familiarization with content and delivery methods

Enhancing ability to communicate important concepts effectively

Workshop Module Overviews

Corporate Social Responsibility

- Understand the concept of corporate social responsibility (CSR)
- Learn about examples of CSR in today's corporations
- Understand the impact on direct and indirect stakeholders, and its impact on marketing and strategies

Ecological Education

- Understand the importance and objectives of ecological education
- Identify effective teaching methods for incorporating ecological education
- Develop a curriculum integrating environmental topics
- Implement practical green practices within institutions
- Assess the impact of ecological education initiatives

Goal Mapping for an Eco- Friendly Life

- Learn to plan life in an eco-friendly manner

Workshop Module Overviews

How to Become a Green Photographer and Video Maker

- Increase awareness and understanding of the importance of photographers and video makers going green
- Understand opportunities available in this field

Green Competences For Indigenous Peoples Debate

Closing Remarks and Icebreaker

Thank you!